GIT AND GITHUB

Quick Commands

```
git config --global user.name "Username on Github"
git config --global user.email "example@example.com"
```

Commands and their explanations can be seen using: git --help

```
git clone <repository address> example: git clone https://github.com/JohnnytheShark/Productivity.git
```

```
git status
```

```
git add <file or . > example: git add test.py
```

```
git commit -m "<add your commit message here>"
example: git commit -m "This is the first commit"
```

```
git push
```

```
git branch
```

```
git checkout -b <branch name>
```

```
git merge <branch name>
```

```
git push --set-upstream origin <branch name>
```